Endeavour Group Charitable Trust presents traction a half day course to help students in years 10-13 in their vocational journeys. This special workshop is being held in Auckland City on Saturday 10th October from 9.00 am - 1.00 pm

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? Young adults who want to be better equipped to make informed decisions about their vocation – their call to life and to work. We recognise making the first steps on the journey can be quite daunting. Endeavour Group is here to help and support you via this half day workshop.

WHO IS PRESENTING THE WORKSHOP?

Endeavour Group Charitable Trust's John Fabrin will be the course facilitator and key presenter.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

Discovery, inspiration and valuable learning to help you make progress on your vocational journey. You'll learn more about yourself; your purpose in life; that vocation is a journey and that there are signposts to help you navigate your way. We'll help you to identify your personal strengths, interests and skills, and see how these relate to career options.

You will receive your own Fuel50 Insight Report (normally $100)

This will help to identify:

- Your personal and career values
- Your personal and career motivators
- Your talents and skills
- And will provide you with insightful recommendations and career options.

WHERE?

The traction half day course will be held at Endeavour Group, Level 2, 53 Upper Queen Street Auckland City.

WHAT ARE THE FEES?

$92 per person. Note: Endeavour Group Charitable Trust is making subsidised places available at $63 inc GST for students registered by noon Friday 2nd October (a saving of $29 or almost 33%).

There are limited places available so register your application as soon as possible.
